

Helping you care
for our land, water,
soil, and wildlife.

Hello Napa RCD Community,

November is all about giving back and growing together! As the leaves fall and the season of gratitude begins, we're celebrating our volunteers, our trees, and our community. It's the perfect time to support our mission through the Napa Valley Give!Guide campaign, running from November 1 to December 31. Help us keep our community growing strong! Later this month, get outside with us and lend a hand (and maybe plant a few acorns!) at our Community Oak Planting Day on November 28. Then, don't miss Rules of Trees on December 3—a webinar diving into Napa's tree ordinances and codes to help you better understand how our urban forest is protected and managed. Read on to learn more about how you can take part, give back, and make a lasting impact this season.

Cheers,
Napa RCD

Program Spotlight

Soil Science at Pueblo Vista Elementary's Career Day

This year at Pueblo Vista Elementary's Career Day, Miguel Garcia, Napa RCD's Agriculture Senior Project Manager, brought soil science to life for nearly 100 fourth and fifth-grade students, entirely in Spanish. Because Pueblo Vista is a dual-language immersion school with many Hispanic students who speak Spanish at home, the presentation became a unique opportunity for students to see science through their own language and culture.

Kicking off the 2025-26 School Year Outside with New Partnerships

This year we are able to provide free environmental education programs that connect Napa County students to the natural world thanks to generous donors, grants, and partners. We're growing our impact by providing curiosity-building practices and mentorship in smaller groups of students.
